NSS

The National Service Scheme (NSS) is an Indian government-sponsored public service program conducted by the Department of Youth Affairs and Sports of the Government of India. Popularly, known as NSS, the scheme was launched in Gandhiji's Centenary year, 1969. Aimed at developing student's personality through community service, NSS is a voluntary association of young people in Colleges, Universities and at +2 level working for a campus-community linkage.

NSS

The National Service Scheme (NSS) is an Indian government-sponsored public service program conducted by the Department of Youth Affairs and Sports of the Government of India. Popularly, known as NSS, the scheme was launched in Gandhiji's Centenary year, 1969. Aimed at developing student's personality through community service, NSS is a voluntary association of young people in Colleges, Universities and at +2 level working for a campus-community linkage.

The NSS volunteers use to organise the college campus cleaning programme on a regular basis. They also appeal and encourage others to make their surrounding neat and clean. If all people become motivated with this message and try to keep their environment clean, the mission of Swachha Bharat will be successful.

NSS Unit 1 also visited one private primary school in slum area where poor students of 4-5 ages come and study with great difficulty. All NSS volunteers encouraged and inspired their study by giving them books, notebooks, pencil box containing pen, pencil, rubber, sharpener, cadbury etc. so that they don't feel alone but feel at least someone beside them. NSS coordinator, Dr. Prosenjit Mukherjee and Active NSS Member, Dr. Suparna Banerjee, also actively took part in this programme along with the NSS volunteers.
